

State of Rhode Island - Division of Taxation

Sales and Use Tax

Regulation SU 9607-48

Exempt Agencies, Organizations and Institutions - Sales To

I. Sales of tangible personal property to the Federal Government or to any of its agencies or instrumentalities, to the State of Rhode Island, or any of its cities or towns, and to any redevelopment agency created pursuant to Chapter 45-31 of the Rhode Island General Laws are not subject to the tax.

Such governmental agencies or instrumentalities are not required to furnish exemption certificates to their suppliers. However, the seller must make appropriate notations in his/her records covering his/her sales to such governmental agencies or instrumentalities.

II. Sales to all other exempt organizations, including hospitals not operated for profit, educational institutions not operated for profit, churches, orphanages, and other institutions or organizations operated exclusively for religious or charitable purposes, interest free loan associations not operated for profit, nonprofit organized sporting leagues and associations and bands for boys and girls under the age of 19 years, the following vocational student organizations that are state chapters of national vocational students organizations: distributive education clubs of America, (DECA); future business leaders of America/Phi Beta Lambda (FBLA/PBL); future farmers of America (FFA); future homemakers of America/home economics related occupations (FHA/HERD); and organized nonprofit Golden Agers and senior citizens clubs for men and women, and parent-teacher associations are exempt from sales and use tax, but each such organization must file an application for and obtain from the Tax Administrator an exemption certificate covering such exempt organizations.

The exemption applies only to such purchases as are made by the organization itself for its own purposes and not to purchases by any of its members individually. An individual member or group of members belonging to such an exempt organization must pay the tax when purchasing meals, or other tangible personal property for their individual or collective use or consumption.

III. Exemption certificates issued by other states will not be recognized in this state; however, out-of-state exempt organizations of the same type may apply for an exemption certificate in the same manner as a Rhode Island organization. An application form may be obtained from the Division of Taxation. No tax exempt purchases may be made by such organizations until an exemption certificate has been approved and issued to such organization. Each such certificate shall be identified by a certificate number. ~~Sales to exempt entities and to the Federal, state and municipal governments of this state will be deemed to be taxable unless the retailer is in compliance with the following:~~

1. ~~Obtains a copy of the exemption certificate (issued by the RI Division of Taxation) from the purchaser except for purchases by Federal, state and municipal governments which are not issued exemption certificates.~~
2. ~~For any purchase exceeding $25.00, payment must be received by check drawn in the name of the organization or governmental entity or by credit card or purchase order in the name of the organization or governmental entity. The exemption must be refused to any purchaser paying with a personal check or personal credit card.~~
3. ~~For any purchase $25.00 or less, payment may be received in cash. If the payment is in cash, the purchaser is required to indicate the date and the amount of the purchase and sign his/her name and address at the bottom of the copy of the exemption certificate or sales invoice in the case of a governmental entity.~~

Sales to exempt entities, other than the Federal government, the State government and municipal governments of this State, will be deemed to be taxable unless the retailer obtains a copy of the exemption certificate (issued by the RI Division of Taxation) or obtains a properly completed exemption certificate authorized by the Streamlined Sales and Use Tax Agreement.

The following form of exemption certificate is prescribed by the Tax Administrator.

CERTIFICATE OF EXEMPTION

This is to certify that the above-named institution or organization has qualified for exemption pursuant to the provisions of the Rhode Island Sales and Use Tax Act, Chapter 18, Title 44, Section 30(5) of the General Laws of 1956, as amended, and is accordingly exempt from the payment of the sales tax on sales made to it and from the use tax on the storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property by it.

Certificate Number.....

Date of Issuance.....

~~R. GARY CLARK~~DAVID SULLIVAN
TAX ADMINISTRATOR

EFFECTIVE DATE: JANUARY 1, ~~1996~~2007

THIS REGULATION AMENDS AND SUPERCEDES REGULATION SU ~~9296~~48
PROMULGATED JANUARY 1, ~~1993~~1996.

REGULATION SU 07-48
Exempt Agencies, Organizations and Institutions – Sales To

EXPLANATION OF REGULATORY CHANGES

Legislation conforming Rhode Island Sales & Use Tax Law to the provisions of the Streamlined Sales & Use Tax Agreement (SSUTA) was signed June 30, 2006 and becomes effective January 1, 2007. This conforming legislation adopts the agreement's administration of exemptions.

MAJOR CHANGES

Removal of the requirements:

1. of the retailer to obtain a copy of the exemption certificate issued by the RI Division of Taxation from the purchaser.
2. for purchases exceeding $25.00 payment must be received by check in the organization name and for payment with a personal check the exemption must be refused.
3. for purchases $25.00 or less the purchaser must indicate the date and amount of the purchase and sign the exemption certificate or sales invoice.